DESCRIPTION

Balcony Lounge Bench by Ronan + Erwan Bouroullec for HAY.

An elegant new outdoor furniture collection from HAY comprising of side chairs, armchairs, lounge chairs, tables and benches, the Balcony collection stands out with its unique symmetrical holes incorporated into the design. With minimal welding made possible by the presence of the symmetrical holes which provide extra stability, the collection is aesthetically soft on the eye without compromising strength or comfort.

The latest addition to the Balcony range, the Balcony Lounge Bench is an outdoor seating solution that combines elegance and comfort. Designed by Ronan and Erwan Bouroullec for HAY, this bench features a simple yet stylish rectangular shape with slender legs that add a touch of sophistication. The wide seat and back are comfortable and reinforced with multiple holes to ensure durability.

Made of powder-coated steel with an outdoor primer, this bench is built to last and withstand the elements. You can choose from various colours and even opt for armrests, making it a versatile addition to any outdoor space, from terraces to gardens and beyond.

Designed in 2022, the Balcony collection consists of chairs, lounge chairs, tables and benches in a number of different colour options. View the Balcony family in the 'Product range' below.
