DESCRIPTION

Nelson Ball Wall Sconce by George Nelson for HAY.

The Nelson Wall Lamp collection offers an impressive selection of wall-mounted lighting solutions. The range includes exquisite fixtures designed to enhance any interior space. Each lamp boasts a spherical shade delicately suspended from a luxurious walnut wall mount, supported by a sturdy steel arm. Immerse your surroundings in a cosy and inviting ambience with the soft, diffused light emitted by these exceptional lamps.

Experience unparalleled flexibility as the lamp's arm can be effortlessly adjusted both horizontally and vertically, without requiring any alteration to its wall-mounted position.

George Nelson drew inspiration from a set of luxurious silk-covered Swedish pendant lamps, but he wanted to offer an affordable alternative. To achieve this, he ingeniously utilized a self-webbing plastic material developed by the military. This translucent shell beautifully encases a lightweight, rounded-steel frame, ensuring a perfect balance of elegance and durability.

Available in four charming variants: Ball, Pear, Cigar, and Saucer. See 'More products in this range' below.

Manufactured by Herman Miller and distributed in the UK by HAY.
