The lamp features a spherical shade suspended from a luxurious walnut wall mount, supported by a sturdy steel arm. Create a cozy and inviting atmosphere with the soft, diffused light emitted by this lamp.

George Nelson drew inspiration from luxurious silk-covered Swedish pendant lamps when creating the Nelson Wall Lamp. He succeeded in creating an affordable alternative without compromising on quality. To achieve this, he ingeniously utilized a self-webbing plastic material originally developed by the military. This translucent shell beautifully encases a lightweight, rounded-steel frame, ensuring the perfect balance of elegance and durability.

Available in four charming variants: Ball, Pear, Cigar, and Saucer. See 'More products in this range' below.

Manufactured by Herman Miller and distributed in the UK by HAY.
