DESCRIPTION

Crate Side Table by Gerrit Rietveld for HAY.

Bring a touch of timeless elegance to your home or outdoor space with the Crate Collection from Rietveld Originals and HAY. Designed by the renowned Dutch architect and designer Gerrit Rietveld in 1934, this collection features modern and functional furniture made from surplus wooden crates. The simple, yet well-designed pieces include a lounge chair and sofa, dining chair and bench, low table, and side table, all crafted from solid pine and finished with a water-based coating.

Assembly is a breeze with the knock-down construction and screw assembly, making it easy to add a touch of sophistication to your space. The solid pinewood has been specially treated for outdoor use and is FSC™-certified, making this collection perfect for any environment, whether it be a cafe or a private garden. Upgrade your space with the Crate Collection and enjoy a beautiful blend of modern design and timeless aesthetics.
