DESCRIPTION

Apex Clip Lamp by John Tree for HAY.

Drawing inspiration from the timeless Banker's Light, the Apex Clip Lamp is the creation of British designer John Tree. By seamlessly blending iconic elements with his own contemporary and vibrant perspective, Tree created a truly unique design.

Crafted from folded steel, the lamp's shades take on the form of a peaked roofline, which not only lends its name but also provides a striking visual contrast against the chrome-plated bases. Thanks to its adjustable clip, this lamp can be effortlessly secured onto various vertical and horizontal surfaces.

Moreover, the vividly coloured shade boasts a 360-degree rotation capability, empowering users to tailor the light direction to their preferences. Versatile in function, the Apex Clip Lamp serves as an ideal lighting solution for an array of spaces and purposes, from casting a soothing ambient glow in a tucked-away nook to illuminating a reading area by the sofa.
