DESCRIPTION

Apex Desk Clip Light by John Tree for HAY.

Drawing inspiration from the timeless Banker's Light, British designer John Tree skillfully combined traditional elements with his modern and vibrant aesthetic to craft the innovative Apex Desk Clip Lamp.

Crafted from folded steel, the shades form a distinctive peaked roofline contour, not only serving as the lamp's namesake but also delivering a striking visual contrast against the chrome-plated bases. This lamp boasts an adaptable clip mechanism designed to affix it to a diverse array of horizontal surfaces. Both the vividly colored shade and the angled arm have the ability to rotate 360 degrees, granting users unparalleled flexibility to direct the light precisely as desired.

The Apex Desk Clip Lamp stands as a practical lighting solution suitable for a myriad of environments and purposes, ranging from a focused desk luminary to an illuminating reading companion poised over a sofa.
