DESCRIPTION

Apex Desk Lamp by John Tree for HAY.

Drawing inspiration from the timeless Banker's Light, British designer John Tree skillfully blended iconic elements with his contemporary and vibrant perspective, resulting in the birth of the Apex Desk Lamp.

Crafted from folded steel, the shades ingeniously form a peaked roofline silhouette, not only lending the lamp its name but also creating a striking visual interplay against the chrome-plated bases. The lamp's circular foundation and slanted arm harmonize seamlessly with a lively-hued shade, which boasts a 360-degree rotation capability. This feature empowers users to effortlessly customize the lighting direction according to their preferences.

With its versatility, the Apex Desk Lamp stands as a practical lighting solution suitable for various settings and purposes – from a focused work light on a desk to a cozy reading companion on a bedside table.
