DESCRIPTION

Hi Pad Stool by Jasper Morrison for Cappellini.

Designed in 1999, the Hi Pad stool features a beech plywood seat that contours to the human form, delivering a comfortable sitting experience. The seat can be upholstered in a variety of fabrics or leather, making it capable of blending into any decor. The stool is an excellent option for restaurants and bars.

The chairs embody the vital relationship between technology and artisan craftsmanship. The talents of expert upholsterers are integrated with ingenious modern techniques which allow the upholstery to attach flawlessly to the three-dimensional border of the padding.

The Hi Pad chair has received Greenguard Gold certification: a standard that guarantees maximum emissions control for products designed with the greatest attention to health and wellness.

Available in three heights.
