

Glove Cabinet

Designer: Finn Juhl

Manufacturer: House of Finn Juhl

£11,387

DESCRIPTION

Glove Cabinet by Finn Juhl for House of Finn Juhl.

The Glove cabinet was designed by Finn Juhl for his wife in 1961 to serve that very purpose - a storage solution for her many pairs of gloves. Since then, the Glove cabinet has proved to be a timeless piece of Danish furniture design.

Suitable for use as a side table, as well as storage for smaller items of clothing or stationery.

DIMENSIONS

69.2w x 34.8d x 51.7cmh

MATERIALS

The solid Japanese cherry wood cabinet is inspired by classic cabinet-making techniques, with castors and fittings in brass, and a wengé knob.

A central hinge allows the cabinet to be opened in two, revealing a kaleidoscopic array of ten drawers, each in a boldly different colour.
