Jonas Wagell's marble lamp is a sophisticated blend of the tough and the fragile: a round marble base with a brass dimmer switch is surmounted by a matte opal glass dome that casts a uniform diffused light. The design is inspired by the form of a traditional oil lamp.

A light ideally suited to a bedside table, a desk or sofa table. Of his designs, Wagell says: "I want to create products that can be used every day and become part of people's lives."

Available in white Carrara marble with a blackened brass switch.
