Jonas Wagell's classic JWDA table lamp has been reimagined in a cordless version. Featuring a round base, available in three coloured finishes, with a brass dimmer switch and an opal glass domed shade that casts a warm diffused light. The design is inspired by the form of a traditional oil lamp.

The JWDA Portable has the freedom and flexibility to move anywhere in the home, and is ideal for use on a side table, desk, or next to the bed. Of his designs, Wagell says: "I want to create products that can be used every day and become part of people's lives."
