DESCRIPTION

Klismos Chair by Antonio Citterio for Knoll.

The Klismos, designed by Antonio Citterio in 2022, is a collection for modern living while referencing Knoll design traditions. With particular importance given to sustainability, the collection uses mostly natural materials like wood.

The Knoll Klismos chair offers an authentic blend of quality materials and dynamic, slender forms. The majestic solid wooden frame complements the natural cotton cord weave seats and back. An optional back in wood is also available. Optional leather cushions in either black or natural brown leather can be added for greater comfort.
