

Klismos Lounge Chair

Designer: Antonio Citterio

Manufacturer: Knoll

£2,172

DESCRIPTION

Klismos lounge chair by Antonio Citterio for Knoll.

The Klismos, designed in 2022 by Antonio Citterio, is a collection for modern living while referencing Knoll design traditions. With particular importance given to sustainability, the collection uses mostly natural materials like wood.

The Knoll Klismos lounge chair offers an authentic blend of quality materials and dynamic, slender forms. The majestic solid wooden frame complements the natural cotton cord weave seats and back. Optional leather cushions in either black or natural brown leather can be added for greater comfort.

DIMENSIONS

68w x 60d x 40/71cmh

MATERIALS

Solid oak frame in either natural or black oak finish. Interwoven cotton cord seat and back in natural or black colour to match the colour of the structure.

The cushion is optional, in natural colour leather and in black colour leather. The padding of the optional cushions is in natural material of vegetable origin.
