Manufacturer: Knoll

£1,608

DESCRIPTION

Klismos Stool by Antonio Citterio for Knoll.

Designed in 2022, the Klismos by Antonio Citterio is a collection for modern living while referencing Knoll design traditions. With particular importance given to sustainability, the collection uses mostly natural materials like wood.

The Knoll Klismos stool offers an authentic blend of quality materials and dynamic, slender forms. The majestic solid wooden frame complements the natural cotton cord weave seat. Optional leather cushions in either black or natural brown leather can be added for greater comfort.

DIMENSIONS

71.5w x 48d x 43cmh

MATERIALS

The frame is in natural or black oak. Interwoven cotton cord in natural or black colour to match the colour of the structure.

The cushion is optional, in natural colour leather and in black colour leather. The padding of the optional cushions is in natural material of vegetable origin.
