Pillo Corner Sofa by Willo Perron for Knoll.

The sofa embodies the same relaxing and welcoming comfort that a pillow offers, making it the perfect sofa for lounging.

Pillo is a highly flexible collection, with the individual components able to be combined in countless ways. Each section can also be used as a freestanding module.

The price shown here is for one end module, three intermediate/end modules, one corner module, an ottoman and five hook systems. To create a custom composition, please enquire here for more details.
