

Ko-Ko Service Table

Designer: Shiro Kuramata

Manufacturer: Cappellini

£925

DESCRIPTION

Ko-Ko service table by Shiro Kuramata for Cappellini.

A service table originally designed by Shiro Kuramata in 1986, the Ko-Ko table is an excellent example of minimal design without compromising functionality.

The highly versatile table is made of black-stained ash and has a unique, curved handle on its top.

The shape and placement of the polished chrome metal handle allow this piece also to be used as a seat, making it ideal for compact spaces - use it as a table for daily use and then as an extra chair when you have guests round.

DIMENSIONS

50w x 45d x 61cmh

MATERIALS

The Ko-Ko service table is made from black-stained ash with a metal arc handle in polished chrome. With black felt pads for the feet.
