Manufacturer: Marset

£352

DESCRIPTION

Discocó wall light by Christophe Mathieu for Marset.

Attractive and decorative, Discocó has become a resounding success, with one foot in Scandinavian design and the other in Mediterranean style. Its complex simplicity and evocative play of light and shade make this lamp ideal for illuminating and enriching a setting.

The Discocó lamp is a unique and captivating piece that can enhance the look of any room, even when not in use. It emits soft, indirect lighting, which produces a subtle yet remarkable effect.

The lamp is complete with a chrome-covered sphere at its centre that reflects extra light and enriches its overall visual impact. The attached discs also reflect light, creating an enchanting dance of light and shadow when turned on.
