DESCRIPTION

Ginger Pendant by Joan Gaspar for Marset.

The Ginger family features a disk-shaped shade inspired by the drums of Ginger Baker from the 1960s rock band Cream.

Despite the challenges of shaping wood, Joan Gaspar has produced a beautiful, intimate lamp that provides a warm and gentle glow. The range utilises innovative materials and technology, including layers of wood, paper, and resin moulded under high pressure to create a shade thickness of only 4 mm.

Designed in 2014, the Ginger Pendant lamp brings a cosy atmosphere to any room, making it a versatile lighting option for residential and contract spaces.

The collection offers a range of sizes for suspension, table lamp, and floor models to meet different lighting requirements.
