

Ginger S table lamp, 2014

Designer: Joan Gaspar

Manufacturer: Marset

DESCRIPTION

Ginger S table lamp by Joan Gaspar for Marset.

The Ginger family of lamps has a disk-shaped shade inspired by the drums used by Ginger Baker of the 1960s rock band Cream.

Joan Gaspar overcame the difficulties of working with wood to create a handsome, cosy lamp emitting a soft, warm light. The collection features innovative materials and techniques, using layers of wood, paper, and resin moulded at high pressure to create an ultra-thin shade that is only 4mm thick.

The table lamp offers the same warm, glare-free light as the rest of the collection and makes a great addition to both residential and commercial spaces.
