DESCRIPTION

Soho Pendant by Joan Gaspar for Marset.

The Soho pendant light explores and builds on the merits of lamps traditionally used in markets, taverns, and cafeterias. Its simple shape is enhanced by its high-quality craftsmanship and finishes.

The pendant has been meticulously crafted from rotation-moulded polyethylene, a technique that can produce both small and grander items - meaning that Soho is available in three sizes to suit a variety of spaces.

Adding to its versatility, the pendant light is available in a range of contemporary colours.
