DESCRIPTION

Soho outdoor pendant light by Joan Gaspar for Marset.

The Soho Outdoor pendant light is a modern take on traditional market, tavern, and cafeteria lamps. Its simple design is elevated by its expert craftsmanship and finish.

The pendant has been meticulously crafted from high-quality rotation-moulded polyethylene, a technique that can produce both small and grander items - meaning that Soho is available in three sizes to fit different spaces.

Additionally, it comes in various contemporary colours, making it a versatile lighting option.
