DESCRIPTION

Harrison chandelier pendant by Søren Rose for Menu.

The Tribeca series is a range of lighting inspired by the New York City glamour of the late 1930s. Danish designer Søren Rose travelled across America, searching for and collecting vintage lamps. An inspiring process, Søren Rose deconstructed the old lamps, separating their parts, and later reassembling them. This experimentation resulted in bold designs capturing contemporary elegance and glamour.

Part of the Tribeca series, the Harrison chandelier resembles sculptural art and is a bold interpretation of modern design. This pendant is a stunning piece to hang above the dining table, and also works well in other living and commercial spaces - such as bars and restaurants.

The Harrison fits five different light bulbs and the light bulb type can be changed according to one's preference - making it even more characterful.
