MHL edition Type 75 table, 2004

Designer: Margaret Howell

Manufacturer: Anglepoise

£219

DESCRIPTION

Margaret Howell edition Type 75 task light by Margaret Howell for Anglepoise.

Following the success of their Paul Smith edition lights, Anglepoise has invited another of Britain's leading fashion designers to create a special edition Anglepoise light.

As a long-standing champion of British modernism, Margaret Howell has selected the classic Type 75 model designed by Sir Kenneth Grange. This elegantly functional light draws inspiration from an original 1970s Anglepoise lamp that Howell owns.

Quickship available for the yellow ochre finish only.

DIMENSIONS

Please note that bulb weight in this model is essential for balance. Bulb weight required: 25-60g.
Inline cable switch (34cm from the base).

MATERIALS

The light has an aluminium shade and arms with a matt painted finish in yellow ochre, or Saxon blue.

Fittings are chrome-plated and the base is cast iron with an aluminium cover.

The light incorporates Anglepoise's trademarked constant tension spring technology.

Bulb (included): E27 10W compact fluorescent bulb.
