DESCRIPTION

Beauty Mirror by Michael Anastassiades.

Michael Anastassiades is known for his minimal and sculptural designs. His philosophy is to produce exceptionally designed objects of permanent value.

The 2010 Beauty Mirror is a circular mirror with a soft, rounded form. It takes its inspiration from the Greek philosopher Socrates who believed that young people would become worthy of their beauty after gazing at themselves in mirrors.

The reflective surface of the nickel finish boasts a radiant golden hue that defies traditional notions of an actual reflection in terms of accuracy and colour.

Modern and refined, this polished mirror is an elegant addition to any space.

Please note: due to the nature of the materials used, distortion is to be expected.
