DESCRIPTION

Peak Down by Michael Anastassiades.

A family of pendants designed in 2023 and defined by their cone-shaped shades that exude a highly abstract, geometric still-life appearance. Peak Down is a versatile fixture suited to various environments.

The light is available in two directions (up or down) and three installation arrangements: individually, in pairs, or as a trio. When illuminated, the shading on the curved surface transforms as light gracefully plays along the curved surfaces.
