

Nut Footstool

Designer: Marcel Wanders

Manufacturer: Mooodi

£802

DESCRIPTION

Nut Footstool by Marcel Wanders for Mooodi.

Designed in 2013 by Mooodi co-founder Marcel Wanders, the Nut Footstool is a highly comfortable and versatile piece of furniture. A part of the Nut range, the footstool shares the same design aesthetic as the rest of the family; a solid wooden base and a sinuous silhouette that provides comfort to the occupant.

Pair with the Nut Lounge Chair to create the ultimate relaxation experience, or use the stool on its own as an additional seating option.

Available in a wide range of upholstery and leathers, please choose your preferred upholstery from the downloadable specification pdf and check the category it belongs to on the downloadable matrix. Contact us for guidance and samples.
