Manufacturer: Nanimarquina

DESCRIPTION

Rabari rug by Doshi Levien for Nanimarquina.

Inspired by old fashioned rugs, Nanimarquina recovers the essence of the rug, both in its texture and in its use. For the desert nomads, a house is built on a rug, as rugs originally served to protect people from the ground. They represented an object of daily use; as well as providing comfort, they also defined the space.

Over time, the rug has become a decorative element and a vehicle for cultural messages. Inspired by sensual and ornate Indian tribal folk embroidery, the Rabari rug is crafted with 100% New Zealand wool. Each rug is hand-knotted and hand-woven in India using the traditional Sumak technique.

Available in four sizes and a choice of two designs. See images above for examples.

Please note, custom sizes available on request. Contact us for details.
