DESCRIPTION

Tres Texture Rug by Nani Marquina for Nanimarquina.

Inspired by a rich historical heritage, this collection of flat-weave Dhurrie rugs revives the very essence of the traditional Indian rugs, both in their tactile qualities and their functional significance. For the nomadic tribes of the desert, their temporary houses are built on a rug, initially serving as protection from the earth beneath. These rugs served as indispensable daily items, offering not only comfort but also delineating the living spaces.

As time has passed, the rug has evolved into a decorative symbol and a conveyance for cultural narratives. The Tres collection embodies the contemporary metamorphosis of tradition, reflecting Nanimarquina's unwavering commitment to craftsmanship. Its classical spirit is authentically realized through meticulous handcrafting in India, employing a time-honoured and traditional technique: the dhurrie."
