The Lorosae Pendant by Pritzker Prize winner Álvaro Siza for Nemo Lighting is an eye-catching light with an alluring design. Created for his solo exhibition at the Basilica Palladiana in Vicenza in 1999, this timeless light fixture is made of translucent glass and comes in a range of finishes. The white inner diffuser carefully preserves the natural colour of the light, making it the perfect addition to any space.

Available in large yellow, the Lorosae Pendant Light stands out on its own or as a collection.

IF Design Award 2003.
