DESCRIPTION

Kizu table lamp by Lars Tornøe for New Works.

Comprising two strong sculptural forms neatly balancing against each other, the Kizu table lamp almost looks weightless. Made using high-quality marble, the designer Lars Tornøe succeeds in giving the table lamp a gravity-defying illusion while bringing a sense of calmness with its organic curved shape. A design that truly blends material and function in perfect harmony.

Available in two sizes and three different finishes, the table lamp is a great addition to any modern interior setting.
