

August Industry Stool

Designer: Aamu Song and Johan Olin

Manufacturer: Nikari

£650

DESCRIPTION

August Industry Stool by Aamu Song & Johan Olin for Nikari.

Designed in 2012, the August Industry Stool is one of the responses to Nikari's 12 Designs for Nature series. Aamu Song and Johan Olin were inspired by the tree branches in the forests in Fiskars, Finland with each leg of the stool taking the shape of a branch. This carefully crafted piece is a versatile addition to any space, functioning as a stool or a small side table.

All products in the Designs for Nature collection donate part of the sales price to protecting rainforests and forests globally.

twentytwentyone is the exclusive agent of Nikari in the UK.
