DESCRIPTION

December Canvas Chair by Jasper Morrison + Wataru Kumano for Nikari.

"We talked about the pleasure in making things and the idea of a chair that could be bought in a box and built at home. Considering Nikari's skill in woodwork, we worked up the idea of a chair which could be made by following easy instructions. It's a basic but comfortable low chair with a slightly rural character and definite Scandinavian influence, the kind of chair you would have in a country house near the fire, though it could work in a city apartment or a hotel lobby just as well."

-Jasper Morrison and Wataru Kumano

An informal chair designed in 2014, the December chair is constructed from high-quality natural materials, offering exceptional comfort through its low stature and the gently reclined angle of the seatback.

The chair is available with the seat and back in linen canvas material. The December Lounge is also available with a leather back and seat here.
