

Arkitecture table, 1992

Designer: Kari Virtanen

Manufacturer: Nikari

£2,444

DESCRIPTION

Arkitecture table by Kari Virtanen for Nikari.

A timeless piece of furniture from Nikari, the Arkitecture table is a great choice for private or public spaces. Featuring birch sturdy trestle legs and a solid wood tabletop, the table is a great choice as an office desk or dining table.

The durable trestle legs are the same legs that are used daily at the Nikari studio workshop, carrying heavy loads of wooden planks. The legs can be stacked and are very practical.

Available in three sizes in oak or birch wood.
