DESCRIPTION

19 Outdoors Bench by the Butterfield Brothers for Nine.

The 19 Outdoors furniture collection was inspired by 19 Chairs, a charitable project Tom and Will Butterfield created during the COVID-19 lockdown. The brotherly duo crafted nineteen beautiful chairs in nineteen days using only wooden screws and timber. The chairs were then sent out to other creatives, such as Tom Dixon, Es Devlin, and Max Siedentopf, who added their own touch to each seat, with the final creations auctioned off to support Age UK.

The 19 collection was introduced in 2023 and is unified through its material, colour and proportions. With a diverse range of seats and tables, you can be playful and select designs that best suit your environment.

This outdoor bench boasts a sleek, understated design that seamlessly allows it to blend into its environment. Available in three different colours, you can choose whether you want it to contrast or blend in with its surroundings.
