DESCRIPTION

19 Outdoors Stacking Armchair by the Butterfield Brothers for Nine.

The 19 Outdoors furniture collection draws inspiration from the 19 Chairs charity project Tom and Will Butterfield created during the COVID-19 lockdown. In just nineteen days, the brothers crafted nineteen chairs made entirely from wooden screws and timber. The chairs were then passed on to other creatives, including Tom Dixon, Es Devlin, and Max Siedentopf, who added their own unique flair to each one. The final creations were auctioned off to raise funds for Age UK.

Designed in 2023, this collection boasts a cohesive look using consistent materials, colours, and proportions. With a wide range of seats and tables to choose from, you have the opportunity to play around and find designs that perfectly suit your space.

The Stacking Armchairs make for a comfortable dining seat option that can be easily stored away when not in use.

Please note: there is a minimum order quantity of two chairs in the same finish.
