Manufacturer: Objekto

£2,913

DESCRIPTION

FDC1 Armchair by Flávio de Carvalho for Objekto.

Flávio de Carvalho, considered a "romantic revolutionary" by Le Corbusier, wielded diverse talents, notably in design and architecture. His ground-breaking FDC1 armchair, crafted during the 50s, showcased graphic and sculptural elements, reminiscent of tribal masks or a nod to sadomasochism.

The armchair features a timeless silhouette with a black powder-coated steel base and upholstery in three unique vegetable tanned leather options.
