

Palais Royal dining table, 2012

Designer: Anya Sebton and Eva Lilja Lowenheim

Manufacturer: Asplund

£4,778

DESCRIPTION

Palais Royal dining table by Anya Sebton & Eva Lilja Lowenheim for Asplund.

Inspired by historic environments and ancient palaces, Anya Sebton and Eva Lilja Löwenhielm designed the Palais series, incorporating features such as columns, pedestals, and panel-covered walls. The designers were mainly influenced by the installation Colonnes de Buren/deux plateaux by Daniel Buren, located in the courtyard of Palais Royal, which inspired the collection's shape and name.

Crafted with a delicate touch and solid craftsmanship, the Palais Royal combines the elegance of a wood veneer or circular laminate top with a wood relief base to create an unmistakably Scandinavian dining table.

DIMENSIONS

130dia x 73cmh

MATERIALS

This round table features a top of stained oak veneered birch plywood or coloured laminated birch plywood. The weighted base features vertically aligned stained oak panels.

Veneered birch plywood top available in white stained oak, teak stained oak, or dark grey stained oak. Nano laminated birch plywood top available in white, beige, grey, or light oak finishes.

Veneered top finished with a polyurethane protective lacquer. For laminate options, the underside of the table top is colour-matched to the base.

HELP / ADVICE

Call: 0207 837 1900

Email: showroom@twentytwentyone.com