DESCRIPTION

Plato Chair by Jasper Morrison for Magis.

The new chair Plato designed by Jasper Morrison is versatile in use and well suited for domestic, professional, and public spaces - indoors and outdoors.

Understated and with a neoclassical inspiration, hence the name that references one of the pillars of ancient philosophy, the Plato chair is the manifestation of a perfect balance between form and function. It features a sleek yet robust structure with a curved seat for maximum comfort.

Plato is available with or without armrests.

An optional cushion is available, please enquire for details.
