

Quaderna 710 Console

Designer: Superstudio

Manufacturer: Zanotta

£3,685

DESCRIPTION

Quaderna 710 Console by Superstudio for Zanotta.

The Quaderna range was designed by Superstudio for Zanotta in 1971 and is considered by critics as one of the clearest expressions of the theories of the 'Radical design' movement which was born in Italy in the late '60s. Starting from an extremely critical position in regards to the Modern movement, the Superstudio group theorised the necessity to adopt a new attitude towards projects - not only in a 'functional key' but also by giving great attention to symbolic and expressive aspects of the industrial products.

The table can be paired with the Quaderna 710 bench.

DIMENSIONS

180w x 42d x 84cmh

MATERIALS

Featuring a honeycomb core, the Quaderna 710 table is coated with white plastic laminate and digitally silk-screen printed with black squares this console is striking, yet restrained.
