

H55 lounge chair, 1955

Designer: Herbert Hirche

Manufacturer: Richard Lampert

£1,788

DESCRIPTION

H55 lounge chair by Herbert Hirche for Richard Lampert.

Small yet highly comfortable lounge chair. The H55 designed in 1955 is a timeless classic with the same appeal over 60 years after it was originally conceived.

Richard Lampert found a photograph of the small and compact lounge chair in a book about Herbert Hirche. The German architect and designer had created the chair in 1955 when only a limited number of pieces had been produced. Re-launched by Richard Lampert in 2017.

DIMENSIONS

72w x 78d x 36/79cmh

MATERIALS

The H55 lounge chair has a tubular steel frame available powder-coated black or chromed against a surcharge.

Upholstered seat shell available in the following fabrics:

Rohi 'Sera' Lampert collection: Pepper, Marmo, Mare, Verde, Mirage or Arancio colour.

Kvadrat collection: Hallingdal, Sprinkles, Gentle 2

Please view the fabric swatches by clicking on the link or in the pdf in the Product Downloads section.

HELP / ADVICE

Call: 0207 837 1900

Email: showroom@twentytwentyone.com