

Rosewood trolley, 1960

£650

DESCRIPTION

Rosewood trolley, anonymous design c.1960

The trolley is constructed in solid and veneered rosewood and bears impressed marks Danish Furniture Makers Control.

The formed plywood shelves reflect a simple purity and modernist heritage, whilst the use of rosewood provides a decorative quality to the trolley.

The marriage of simplicity in construction and use of selected materials is indicative of a well considered and superior piece of furniture.

The design allows for complete disassembly.
