

Tatu Lamp, 1972

Designer: André Ricard

Manufacturer: Santa and Cole

£444

DESCRIPTION

Tatu lamp by André Ricard for Santa + Cole.

Santa & Cole have released a new edition of André Ricard's classic Tatu lamp. The pop-art icon, Tatu, was conceived in three sections that rotate independently, allowing the lamp to adapt to its environment, from desk to shelf to wall. Ricard was inspired by the light found overhead in a plane and how it could illuminate his book, but not disturb his companion sat beside him.

DIMENSIONS

20.5w x 8d x 25cmh

MATERIALS

Made of ABS plastic, use as a table or wall light. Fittings included.

Available in red or Santa & Cole white.

Santa & Cole have further enhanced the design with the introduction of LED technology, with adaptable light intensity (0-100 %) and including an adjustable converging lens that changes the width of the beam from narrow (30°) to wide (50°).

Electric cable length 2m.

Recommended bulb (included):

Built-in adjustable LED. Output 6W. 350 mA

Includes dimmer control.

HELP / ADVICE

Call: 0207 837 1900

Email: showroom@twentytwentyone.com