Designed by Note Design Studio, the Sine Ottoman is characterised by continuous lines and a contemporary colour palette suited to urban and natural surroundings.

Void of sharp corners, the ottoman has a visual lightness and an inviting presence that encourages relaxation. Its square-framed legs not only provide robustness but also allow for captivating shadows to be cast.

The Sine family, which takes its name from the shape of the mathematical curve, includes dining chairs, a lounge chair, a stool, a bench and three sizes of dining tables with the same aesthetic.
