

Jut Cabinet, 2018

Designer: Thomas Jenkins

Manufacturer: Fritz Hansen

£2,299

DESCRIPTION

Jut Cabinet by Thomas Jenkins for Fritz Hansen.

The modern Jut cabinet is made of oak and sits on slender round legs, aligned to the outer corners. The mid and right sections are divided by removable shelves, the left is empty allowing for storage of larger items.

DIMENSIONS

126w x 39d x 68cmh

MATERIALS

Made of oiled oak FSC mix.

The elegant brass handles of the doors are positioned under the tabletop, which is available in either oak or marble.

Care: Blot spills on oak or marble immediately to minimise the risk of spots or etching.

Maintenance: Protect the marble surface by sealing once or twice a year. Use a suitable marble sealer or mix soap flakes with water and apply the foam to the tabletop for 5 minutes. Dry off with a soft, damp cloth.
