DESCRIPTION

Tati desk by Mats Broberg & Johan Ridderstråle for Asplund.

The Tati Desk, designed by Mats Broberg and Johan Ridderstråle, features a sleek and sophisticated design with a curved base that is consistent throughout the Tati collection. The desk has a bent metal structure and a single drawer matching the desk top's veneer.

Initially introduced in 2011 as a series of nesting tables, the Tati collection has since expanded to include various contemporary furniture pieces, including consoles, side tables, coffee tables, and desks, all featuring a distinctive arched base.

Additional drawers in the same finish as tabletop and with brass knobs, can be placed under the desktop. Please enquire for details.
