DESCRIPTION

T90 Writing Desk by Osvaldo Borsani for Tecno.

First introduced at the 10th Triennial in 1954, the T90 writing desk is the result of the amalgamation of technology and creativity. The table featured a curved plywood top with three drawers. The table is a timeless design icon perfect for home and office environments.

In 2012, a new edition of the table was introduced featuring a curved top in black walnut and a slender steel tube structure in matt grey colour. The desk comes with adjustable feet. The three drawers are available in solid black walnut with recessed handles and finishing matching the tabletop.
