

Karibowl

Manufacturer: Tiipoi

£30

DESCRIPTION

Karibowl by Tiipoi.

Part of the Longpi Cookware collection, the Karibowl's have been designed in collaboration with award-winning ceramist Mathew Sasa.

Utilising a combination of traditional techniques from the village of Longpi, along with contemporary manufacturing methods such as 3D printing, the bowl's boast a charming blend of precise and handmade qualities.

The bowls have been crafted from locally sourced 'serpentine' rock and river clay, which magnifies and preserves the flavours of the meals placed within the bowls.

DIMENSIONS

Small: 7.5w x 7.5d x 6cmh

Large: 24w x 24d x 6cmh

MATERIALS

Each bowl is hand-moulded and burnished in India from a locally sourced 'serpentine' rock and river clay.

They are fired at low temperatures and finished without any glazes, meaning they can be easily returned to the earth with minimal impact.
