DESCRIPTION

Pantop Pendant Light by Verner Panton for Verpan.

Designed by Verner Panton in 1980, the Pantop pendant is characterised by its bell-like shade, which gracefully flares outwards, creating a blend of ambient and functional lighting. With its decorative and sophisticated appeal, the Pantop remains a timeless addition to the Verpan collection.

The Pantop pendant light has been reproduced in its original dimensions in an array of contemporary colours, each bringing its personality to the collection and making the pendant adaptable to any interior style.

This pendant works beautifully as a singular pendant or as part of a cluster.

The Pantop is also available as a table lamp, perfect for small spaces.
