DESCRIPTION

Reflect Table Light by Verner Panton for Verpan.

While Verner Panton is best known for his intricate and organic designs, Reflect is a departure from his usual aesthetics. It showcases Panton's ingenuity and understanding of manipulating light to create the desired atmosphere.

Light is emitted upwards from the tubular base and then reflected off the white, disc-shaped shade. The shade is slightly slanted, creating strong yet diffused light.

Although designed in the 1980s, the lamp was only put into production once Verpan rediscovered it in their archives.

Reflect is available in grey and red.
