

Vitra Ampi charger, 2021

Manufacturer: Vitra

£185

DESCRIPTION

Ampi charger by Vitra.

Covert your desk into a modern electrified workstation with the Vitra Ampi desk charging station. The charging station is made for modern working. The carefully designed charging port looks nothing like any typical charging station when closed, and comes with a variety of ports to charge your devices. The top features a wireless charger for smartphones while the drawer opens out to the front, offering access to two power sockets, two USB-A connections and a USB-C connection.

Ampi grants flexibility without any costly table modifications or complicated cabling. Ampy comes with a non-slip base and is available in two different colours. The power sockets can also be adapted to any local plug type.
